

PRESS RELEASE

Rayleigh's revival of the Trinity Fair yesterday, that last took place in the town centre in 1899 was a huge success. The sun shone, which helped to bring out the crowds for a lovely day of live singing and dancing, fun fair rides and vintage, gift and food stalls. All of the iconic features of the town were open for visitors including the Windmill, Dutch Cottage, Holy Trinity Church Tower, Rayleigh Mount and Museum. Town Council Chairman Mrs Carol Pavelin said, 'This has been a fantastic day. Haddon Events and all of the local organisations have worked together with the Town Council to show off the best of Rayleigh'.
